Why Do We Sell J & K Boots?

Because they please more women than any other we can buy.

Women are shrewd buyers—not easily deceived. Why shouldn't we make friends by selling the best—instead of making enemies by carrying inferior goods?

Courteous, attentive service always.

Thrift Thrift Thrift

Look around you. October is Nature's thrift month. All forms of life, both animal and vegetable, are getting ready for the "rainy day."

Farmers are bringing their crops into the storehouses. Thrifty housewives are filling cans with fruit, and cellars with winter supplies.

The honey bees are rounding up their work of the year with large stores of honey, and the squirrel is hoarding nuts for future use.

Even the shade trees will soon be conserving their sap below ground where it will be safely held until Spring.

Thrift is contagious; it's catching. Have you caught it yet? If not, get the habit.

BRIGHT SKIES FOR FAIR OPENING

FIRST DAY A LITTLE SHORT OF ATTENDANCE—FARMERS TOO BUSY

Entries Well up to Average but Stock a Little Slow Coming in For Opening

The recent rainy season is having its effect on the Jasper City Fair. On opening day the entries averaged up very well with previous years, but many country exhibitors of stock and others exhibits found their work still far behind and were not present with their exhibits on the opening day. A few phoned in that they would not be able to attend at all, but others promised to come in on the second day. Most of the first day's stock parades and judging were postponed for the day.

The cattle department led off nicely with the Gulick herd of Herefords which Mr. Gulick had just brought back from a trip to the nearby state fairs. Arthur Armstrong had a herd of eight splendid Galloways in the ring, three of which he recently purchased at the American Royal Stock Show, they having been first and second premium winners there. There were also several beautiful Jerseys and Red Poll cattle.

The department of farm products attracted much attention from the start. Corn taking the lead with 28 10-ear exhibits, several 100-ear exhibits and 23 10-ear exhibits of popcorn. There was much other grain, fine potatoes, pumpkins, squash, etc.

The poultry exhibit is composed of about 45 coops of choice fowls, ranging from the little Golden Seabrights to the lordly Brahma in the chicken classes with several coops of guineas, turkeys, ducks and geese.

The Spotted Poland China predominates in the hog department, and some fine specimens are shown. The sheep department is showing but one pen, a fine pen of Lincoln, the property of Mr. Hille.

The art department and domestic science department were also very attractive and well filled the first day.

Continued fair weather yesterday brought out a good crowd and many from Carthage and Lamar.

M. D. Wood, of Shelbyville, an agriculture student from the State University, is judging the live stock, poultry and farm exhibits.

J. N. Marsh, executor of the estate of W. M. Deardorff, deceased, is advertising a sale of the personal property of the deceased, dated Monday, October 25. He will sell horses, cattle, hogs, feed, implements and furniture. C. F. Rex, auctioneer.

H. O. Earl is advertising a big stock sale for Wednesday, October 27. They will offer a choice lot of big young cattle including 20 yearling steers, 90 head of two and three year old steers, a few good stock cows and several good young Jersey cows. Twenty-seven head of Shropshire sheep. The auctioneers are Boland, Rex and Radford.

Contributors to the Fair.

In printing the list of contributors to the Fair funds Walter Dodd's name was omitted by error. Mr. Dodd contributed $5.00. The following named also contributed $1.00 each:

Thos. Patterson	Geo. W. Johnson
D. O. Follmer	Jos. E. Rice
Ed Owen	H. Brunner
C. T. Whitesel	J. C. Stalter
E. M. Robinson	H. E. Ballard
C. H. Masters	Robt. Horton
P. V. Roberts	A. A. Foster
W. H. Hager	Clint Rand
	Allen Peterson.

Well Known Lamar Man Dead.

Col. C. Y. Trice, for many years a well known land man in this section of the state and residing at Lamar, died at Ashdown, Ark., Sunday night.

Mayor Tries Hand as Police Judge.

A little row between concession people occurred Tuesday night in a local restaurant. Two men and two women were mixing in a lively manner, throwing dishes and using much profanity when they were arrested by City Marshal Tabler and several citizens. Two of the women and one man were fined $2.50 and costs. Mayor Hayzlett tried the case in the absence of Police Judge Masters.

County Sunday School Meeting

The forty-ninth annual convention of the Jasper County Sunday School Association will be held at the First Presbyterian Church at Sarecoxie, Mo., Tuesday and Wednesday, October 26 and 27. The key word is "efficiency."

County and State Sunday school workers will be present and participate in a most excellent program. Every Sunday School in the county should be represented in the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Beall in California

Mr. and Mrs. H. Beall of Jasper, Mo., arrived Monday for a visit with Mr. Beall's brother, our genial druggist, and his wife. The gentlemen have not been together for 22 years, and they will continue their reunion next week when both families will attend the Fair. Mr. Beall is a real estate operator in Jasper.—Campbell (Cal.) Interurban Press.

Ordinance No. 91

On another page in this issue will be found City Ordinance No. 91, recently passed by the City Council. It is "to regulate and to license and to levy and to collect a license tax on bowling alleys, ten pin alleys, ball alleys, billiard tables and pool tables within the city of Jasper, and prescribing the qualifications of applicants for such license and the manner of obtaining and granting such license, and providing such license shall not be granted except upon petition."

Sunday School Convention Postponed.

On account of bad weather, the township Sunday school convention which was to have been held at Zion last Sunday, the 17th instant, was postponed until Sunday, October 31, at 2 p. m. Sunday Schools and the public generally are invited to attend.

TOM BROCK,
Township President.

Pie Supper at Blue Star

A pie supper and program will be given at Blue Star School house Friday night, October 31. Everybody invited.

Perry Grisham and Judge Earl were busy yesterday and today advertising their stock sales among the crowd. Their sales are dated the 27th and 28th.

Judge Perry Brock was here yesterday from his home east of Carthage. He never misses a fair.

Mrs. Carr's Funeral

The funeral of Mrs. J. E. Carr, whose death was recorded in last week's paper, took place at the family home near Decatur, Ill., last Saturday afternoon, concerning which the Decatur Review prints the following:

"The funeral of Mrs. Nora Carr was conducted at the Boiling Springs church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. Dunmore, pastor of the church.

"The singers were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Park and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rife. The organist was Mrs. Grace Wentz. The flowers were in charge of Miss Martha Troutman, Miss Louise Gulick, Miss Opal Bear, Miss Fleta Resinger, Miss Bertha Park and Miss Vonna Trimmer.

"The bearers were Brice Bear, Harry Butt, Earl Good, Jesse Weltner, Frank Troutman and John Boyer. The burial was in the Boiling Spring cemetery."

Nora Pharis was born March 17, 1867, in Macon County, Ill. She was united in marriage to J. E. Carr at her home in Illinois January 11, 1893. To them were born two sons, Harold and Carl, who are now about 16 and 18 years of age. In the spring of 1903 Mr. and Mrs. Carr moved to this community, residing on a farm. They moved to Jasper several years ago.

Mrs. Carr was active in the church and charitable work of Jasper, and by her kindly disposition and friendliness drew a host of friends about her.

Besides her husband and sons she leaves an aged father, H. H. Pharis; three sisters, Mrs. A. E. Butt, Mrs. F. S. Sowers, Mrs. Valentine Cravens; a brother, T. G. Pharis, all of Decatur, Ill., and another brother, C. L. Pharis, of Putney, S. Dak.

Mr. Carr and his sons wish to express through this medium their deep felt appreciation of the sympathy and aid extended by many friends in the loss of their beloved wife and mother.

Church Notices

Rev. James N. Crutcher of Kansas City, will be with us to begin the revival next Sunday at the Christian Church. He is one of our capable and efficient preachers.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these meetings. We especially urge the christian people of this town to cooperate with us. If you are a christian, help make it unanimous. We are reminded of the words of the Psalmist, "How good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

Come and enjoy the spirit of fellowship. To any and all of these services you will find a hearty welcome. Our aim is to make this a church where Jesus Christ shall have the supremacy and where strangers will be welcome.—H. T. P.

Sabbath services at the First M. E. Church Sunday, October 24, as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Gus Campbell, Superintendent. Worship at 11 o'clock, sermon by the pastor, subject, "The Great Name." Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Song service at 7:30, followed by preaching by the pastor, subject, "The Philosophy of Temptation." Good music. All are welcome.

In Buying a Camera

Don't allow yourself to be fooled by the outside appearance of the machine.

The expense of a camera is in the lens and the shutter.

In buying an Eastman Kodak you may be sure you are getting the best lens and shutter that your money can buy.
